

CUTTING THE RIBBON and opening the doors to the papermakers' new union hall in 1971 was Kenneth McDonald, current president of Local 5 of the Association of Western Pulp and Paper Workers in Camas. The union made a deposit of $1,000 on the building formerly occupied by Safeway Stores, Inc., in 1968, and paid $60,00 for the building and more than $25,000 in remodeling costs. Today the hall is used for meetings, parties and other special events. It is located at 512 NE Dallas St. It's valued at $250,000.
